OOAA

NEWSLETTER

A Newsletter for the OHSU Orthopaedic Surgery Alumni Association

Dear colleagues,

I am excited to bring you the first edition of what I hope will be a bi-annual newsletter updating you on the ongoings of our OHSU Orthopaedic Alumni Association (OOAA).

The purpose of the OOAA is to create a network of graduates from the OHSU orthopaedic surgery residency program that will serve to connect graduates, honor alumni achievements, and support the residency program. We hope to engage alumni in supporting education, research, and career development for the next generation of surgeons.

One of our main priorities is to organize in-person events. For the first time since 2020, we are looking forward to hosting an in-person alumni gathering at the 2023 AAOS Annual meeting in Las Vegas, NV.

We are also working on creating a website that will have "member only" access to an alumni directory, job postings, links to upcoming events, and more!

I would love to hear from you all if you have ideas for the OOAA or would like to participate in the development of this group.

Best,

Elizabeth G. Lieberman

RESEARCH SPOTLIGHT

PARITY

OHSU was one of multiple centers involved in the "Prophylactic Antibiotic Regimens In Tumor Surgery" aka "PARITY" Trial. The study aimed to answer the question: How long do we give prophylactic antibiotics for tumor patients with mega-prosthesis? OHSU researchers began enrolling patients in 2015 and blindly randomized patients to receive 1-day vs 5-days of IV antibiotics following surgery. The main study findings were published in JAMA Oncology earlier this year.

Spoiler alert- there was no difference in the primary outcome of surgical site infection with 1-day vs 5-days of IV antibiotics in tumor patients undergoing endoprosthetic reconstruction. The full abstract is available to read online:

Dr. Yee-Cheen Doung presented the study at OHSU Orthopaedic Grand Rounds and discussed some of the challenges that come with participating in a large multi-center randomized trial such as this. A recording of her presentation, along with other archived Grand Rounds lectures, can be viewed on the OHSU Ortho website:

Congratulations to Dr. Yee-Cheen Doung, Dr. James Hayden, Dr. Kenneth Gundle, and the OHSU Ortho Reserach Team for your contributions to this work.
